My dear Indira

I am so happy for and our Prime Minister today. I send you my most sincere Congratulations. I wrote to you over three months ago that you were bound to win in our general Election. My prophesy has come true. I have now a few small wishes !!

May God keep you in good health always to serve the millions of people who have voted you with your present Office — with full faith that you & your Government will give them all, economic prosperity — domestic happiness — and personal security in all respects — particularly to the under-privileged millions.

I sincerely hope that your TEAM in your Government will ALWAYS remain Loyal to you — their "Captain" — 100% — in everything they do, say — do — and write, in the discharge of their Sacred duty to our Motherland!

God bless you.

With my very high regards

Yours very sincerely

K. Appaiah
